

MY PERSONAL RECOMENDATIONS

*If you click on the place's names you'll get the location in Maps

Food:

- Paella:

Los Arroces de Segis (Authentic Paella recipe, and other flavors)

La Barraca restaurant (in the city center)

- Patatas Bravas:

Las Bravas bar (secret recipe)

Docamar Bar (a bit far from the city center, but the best in the city by far)

- Croquetas:

(the creamiest and biggest in the city)

Bar Malo's

- Try Also their "Zapatilla" Sandwich

- Cocido Madrileño:

(The famous Madrid's stew, made by chickpeas in an incredible rich broth with different types of vegetables and meats, 3 hours cooking time)

Restaurante La Bola

- (And Icon in the city)

- My favorite Bakery:

(homemade pastry & sweets, please cheesecake croissant my favorite)

PANOD

don't forget to try

What about some drinks?:

• Speak easy bars

Fat Cats

- The entrance looks like a jewelry shop!

Salmon Gurú

- A trend right now

• Best rooftops:

RIU Hotel rooftop.

- The Highest

Bulan fit experience.

- It is a gym but....on top...there is the fanciest rooftop in the city.

Círculo de Bellas Artes rooftop.

- Charmin!

Salvador Bachiller secret garden.

- Going into the shop, take the elevator and reach the upper floor, keep the secret ;)

SHARE HERE YOUR EXPERIENCE WITH DANI

Must visit in the city:

Retiro Park:

- The lake
- The cristal Palace
- The fallen Angel statue
- The Peacocks garden

Devod's Temple:

- An authentic egyptian temple in Madrid (Egyptian Government gift).
- Beautiful Sunset.

Rastro del Cascorro (ONLY SUNDAYS)

An authentic street market full of art, music, collecting, and handmade products

